RECOMMENDATION DURING REVIEW IN 2016		RESPONSE IN 2016	RESPONSE IN 2021: EVALUATION, COMMENTS AND REFERENCES TO RELEVANT PARAGRAPHS IN THE MAIN REPORT
120.1.	Consider signing and ratifying the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (Italy) / Consider ratifying the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (Ghana)	Noted	Not implemented. Denmark is a party to the Covenant itself and to six individual communications procedures in the UN system. Denmark finds that many social and economic rights entail important macro-economic choices, which Denmark finds are better decided upon in a parliamentary setting - rather than in an expert committee in the isolated context of an individual complaint. See paragraph 7.
120.2.	Ratify the Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (Montenegro, France, Portugal and Tunisia)	Noted	Not implemented. See 120.1.
120.3.	Withdraw the territorial exclusion for Greenland and the Faroe Islands to the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography (Canada)	Accepted	Fully implemented. With effect from 10 October 2016, Denmark has withdrawn its territorial reservation for Greenland and the Faroe Islands to the Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the Sale of Children, Child Prostitution and Child Pornography.
120.4.	Work with the Greenland authorities to withdraw the territorial reservation for Greenland to the Convention on the Rights of the Child Optional Protocol on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland)	Accepted	Fully implemented. See 120.3.
120.5.	Advance the ratification of the pending international instruments, including the Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and their Families, in accordance with the recommendations of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination (Chile)	Noted	Not implemented. Denmark has ratified all ILO core conventions on worker's rights, which also apply to foreign nationals legally residing in Denmark. It is a fundamental problem that the Convention on Migrant Workers does not consistently distinguish between legally residing and illegally staying workers. Granting social rights to irregular migrant workers is not an option as it would undermine the welfare state and encourage more illegal migration. See paragraph 6.
120.6.	Consider the ratification of the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of their Families (Indonesia, Sri Lanka, Ghana and Philippines)	Noted	Not implemented. See 120.5.

RECOMMENDATION DURING REVIEW IN 2016		RESPONSE IN 2016	RESPONSE IN 2021: EVALUATION, COMMENTS AND REFERENCES TO RELEVANT PARAGRAPHS IN THE MAIN REPORT
120.7.	Accede to the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Ecuador)	Noted	Not implemented. See 120.5.
120.8.	Ratify the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of Their Families (Algeria, Azerbaijan, Benin, Egypt, Honduras and Iran)	Noted	Not implemented. See 120.5.
120.9.	Sign and ratify ICRMW (Uruguay and Turkey)	Noted	Not implemented. See 120.5.
120.10.	Ratify and implement the International Convention on the Protection of the Rights of All Migrant Workers and Members of their Families (Kyrgyzstan)	Noted	Not implemented. See 120.5.
120.11.	Ratify the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearance and fully recognize the competence of the Committee on Enforced Disappearances, as provided for in articles 31 and 32 of the Convention (Germany and France)	Accepted	In the process of implementation. See paragraph 6.
120.12	Consider ratifying the International Convention for the Protection of All Persons from Enforced Disappearances (Ghana)	Accepted	Fully implemented. See 120.11.
120.13	Ratify the International Convention on the Protection of all Persons from Enforced Disappearance (Panama, Tunisia, Uruguay, Portugal and Montenegro)	Accepted	In the process of implementation. See 120.11.

RECOMMENDATION DURING REVIEW IN 2016		RESPONSE IN 2016	RESPONSE IN 2021: EVALUATION, COMMENTS AND REFERENCES TO RELEVANT PARAGRAPHS IN THE MAIN REPORT
120.14	Take necessary steps to ratify the ICPPED (Slovakia)	Accepted	Fully implemented. See 120.11.
120.15	Internalise as soon as possible the following international human rights treaties: ICCPR, ICESCR, CAT, ICERD, CRC and CEDAW, as well as ratify ICPPED (Brazil)	Accepted in part	The part concerning the ICPPED: The ICPPED is in the process of being ratified. The part concerning incorporation of ICCPR, ICESCR, CAT, ICERD, CRC and CEDAW: All the treaties are relevant sources of law in Denmark. Although not incorporated into Danish law, the treaties can be and are indeed invoked before and applied by the Danish courts and other national authorities. See 120.11 and paragraph 9.
120.16	Ratify ILO Convention 189 of 2011 on domestic workers (Benin)	Noted	Not implemented. Thorough tripartite consultations have been carried out on the subject of a possible Danish ratification of the Domestic Workers Convention. On this basis it is the Government's assessment that Denmark to a large extent already meets the requirements in the Convention. However, it is also the assessment that a Danish ratification would require legislative measures that would have unintended implications on the Danish collective agreements that already ensure decent work conditions for domestic workers. See paragraph 8.
120.17	Consider ratifying ILO Convention 189 (Philippines)	Noted	Not implemented. See 120.16.
120.18	Reconsider the constraints underneath the process of whether to accede to Protocol No. 12 to the European Convention on Human Rights (Mozambique)	Noted	Not implemented. Denmark finds that accession to Protocol No. 12 might entail a risk of a shift in the powers conferred upon the legislature to decide, what could serve as a legitimate basis for differential treatment, to the courts and – as a last resort – the European Court of Human Rights.
120.19	Accede to Protocol 12 of the European Convention and ensure implementation of concrete measures against all forms of discrimination (Uruguay)	Noted	Not implemented. See 120.18.
120.20	Incorporate core UN human rights treaties into domestic legislation (Azerbaijan)	Accepted in part	Implemented in part. See 120.15.
120.21	Incorporate the international instruments it acceded to into domestic legislation (Egypt)	Accepted in part	Implemented in part. In 1992, Denmark incorporated the European Convention on Human Rights. As regards UN conventions, see 120.15.
120.22	Incorporate the human rights conventions into national law (Guatemala)	Accepted in part	Implemented in part. See 120.15 and 120.21.

120.25	Adopt a comprehensive anti-discrimination legislation (Maldives)	Accepted in principle	Implemented in principle. See paragraphs 11-30.
120.26	Explicitly prohibit discrimination against persons with disabilities and discrimination based on religious belief (Djibouti)	Accepted in principle	Implemented in principle. See 120.25.
120.27	Amend the relevant laws so that all persons with disabilities could vote and stand for election (Albania)	Accepted in part	Implemented in part. See paragraph 39.
120.28	Amend laws to ensure that all persons with disabilities could vote and stand for election (Maldives)	Accepted in part	Implemented in part. See paragraph 39.
120.29	Strengthen its legislation, in particular the Penal Code, in order to harmonize its provisions with the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (Côte d'Ivoire)	Accepted	Fully implemented. See paragraph 31.
120.30	Incorporate into the Criminal Code an outright ban on the activities of organizations which promote racial discrimination (Russian Federation)	Accepted in principle	Implemented in principle. The option to dissolve associations with the purpose of promoting racial discrimination or hate speech is contained in the Constitutional Act. Furthermore, a provision in the Criminal Code criminalizes the continued participation in the activities of an association, which has been temporarily banned or dissolved. On this ground, Denmark does not find it necessary to incorporate further regulations in the Criminal Code. See paragraph 31.

120.31	Amend the Penal Code in the Faroe Islands to ensure that the definition of rape is brought in line with international standards and criminalized in all circumstances, including within marriage (Norway)	The Faroes: Accepted	Fully implemented. In 2017 a number of amendments to the Criminal Code of the Faroe Islands relating to sexual assaults were adopted. 120.36	Eliminate discrimination against migrants, and especially migrant women (Maldives)	Accepted	Fully implemented. See 120.25. 120.37	Refrain from passing discriminatory legislation that are based on bias against foreigners and refugees (Lebanon)	Accepted	Fully implemented. See 120.25. See paragraph 10.

120.38	Amend the new Aliens law on confiscating valuable belongings to cover refugees' expenses to ensure compatibility with human rights obligations (Egypt)	Noted	Not implemented. Following the recommendation, a task force was appointed by the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Trade to examine and make recommendations on NHRI models that could fit the Faroese society. Based on the conclusions and recommendations of the report handed over by this task force, the Government is currently looking at feasible solutions.
120.42	Provide the Special Office for Children with a mandate and additional powers to enable it to provide advisory and legal assistance in a wider range of cases (Germany)	Noted	Not implemented. The current mandate of the Ombudsman's Special Office for Children is considered fully adequate. Free counselling, advisory services as well as free legal assistance is provided to children in the social system already.
120.43	Increase the mandate and powers of the Special Office for Children to provide advisory or legal assistance in a wider range of cases (Hungary)	Noted	Not implemented. See 120.42.

An inter-ministerial human rights committee on a regular basis reviews national and international recommendations to Denmark, and a number of thematic action plans are already in force. Denmark considers that a national action plan would not add value to the current situation.

A principal objective of introducing selfgovernment has been to facilitate the transfer of additional authority and thus responsibility to Greenlandic authorities. In November 2017, the Danish Supreme Court – in a specific case concerning the rules governing the postponement of family reunification for beneficiaries of temporary protection – found that the 3 year postponement of the right to family reunification was not a violation of the right to family life nor the prohibition on discrimination. This case is currently pending before the European Court of Human Rights. Exceptions to the postponement shall be made in all cases where Denmark’s international obligations so require.
